DIAKONIA

A black and white photograph of a man in a light-colored polo shirt and dark trousers, standing in profile and painting a wall with a brush. He is holding a bucket in his left hand. The wall is made of rough, textured material, possibly plaster or brick, and shows signs of being worked on. To the left of the man, several long wooden poles or beams are leaning against the wall. The overall scene suggests a construction or restoration project in progress.

A black and white photograph of two men standing in front of a prison cell. The man on the left is wearing a patterned short-sleeved shirt and has a slight smile. The man on the right is wearing a dark t-shirt with a graphic of a person's head and is smiling broadly. The cell door behind them has a small window with vertical bars. The wall is made of concrete and shows some wear.

STAFF

2018

WE ARE
20 STAFF: 11 PRISON CHAPLAINS, 3 SOCIAL WORKERS

"ONE OF THE THINGS I PARTICULARLY LIKE IS THE EMPHASIS ON FOCUSING ON A CLEAR VISION. BECAUSE THE VISION IS IDENTIFIED AND SHARED BY OUR STAFF IT MEANS THAT IT IS MORE LIKELY TO BE WORKED TOWARDS AND REALISED. HAVING A CLEAR OBJECTIVE HELPS GIVE US A STRONG FOUNDATION TO WORK OUT OF. MAY GOD BLESS OUR CHURCHES IN THE PRISONS!"
